

DPR Brown Bag

LUNCH SERIES

HELPING SCHOOLS REDUCE RISK: PROMOTING MANTECA UNIFIED'S GOPHER TRAPPING PROGRAM

Join us for an update on California's School and Child Care IPM program, and a special presentation by Manteca Unified School District. Integrated Pest Management (IPM) is the preferred method of managing pests at school sites under California's Healthy Schools Act (HSA) to reduce children's exposure to pesticides.

SPEAKERS

Brian Leahy

Director, Department of Pesticide Regulation

Eric Denemark

Senior Environmental Scientist (Specialist) -
Department of Pesticide Regulation

John Lopez

Supervisor of Grounds & IPM Coordinator-
Manteca Unified School District

Lisa Estridge

Senior Environmental Scientist (Supervisory) -
Department of Pesticide Regulation

* PLEASE BRING A LUNCH

C.E. CREDITS ARE AVAILABLE

WHEN

October 4, 2017

11:45-1:00 p.m.

WHERE

CalEPA 1001 I Street in Sacramento

* Training Rooms East/West – first floor

AGENDA

- 11:45 a.m.      Registration, Sign-In
- 12:00 p.m.      Welcome: Brian Leahy, Director -
Department of Pesticide Regulation
- 12:05 p.m.      How Does the School Pesticide Use
Report Help Us Know Which School
Districts Need Help With Gopher
Control? Eric Denemark, Senior Environmental Scientist- Department of Pesticide Regulation
- 12:25 p.m.      Manteca Unified's Gopher Control
Success Story - John Lopez, Supervisor of Grounds & IPM Coordinator-
Manteca Unified School District
- 12:40 p.m.      Promoting Success: How DPR's School and Child Care IPM Program Helps
Schools Reduce Risk Statewide - Lisa
Estridge, Senior Environmental Scientist
Supervisor- Department of Pesticide
Regulation
- 12:50 p.m.      Questions
- 1:00 p.m.      Adjourn