Other requirements

Once you obtain your license, you must do all of the following:

- Maintain records of all purchases, sales, and distributions of pesticides at main and branch offices for four years. You must report the total dollars of sales and total pounds or gallons of agricultural use pesticides sold into or within California to DPR's director on a quarterly basis.
- Pay the quarterly mill assessment to the director if the registrant or pesticide broker has not paid it (FAC section 12406[b]).
- Report purchases from other licensed dealers or registrants to the director on an annual basis.
- Retain agricultural pest control adviser's written recommendations for two years.
- Retain restricted material permits and operator identification statements records for two years.
- Within 10 days following the end of each quarter, a Pest Control Dealer must send a list of all purchasers of restricted materials during that quarter, along with their operator identification number, to each of the County Agricultural Commissioner's offices who issued those numbers.
- Retain Qualified Applicator License, Qualified Applicator Certificate, and Private Applicator Certificate numbers and pest control category(ies) received from purchasers when the operator identification number certificate was not required.
- Obtain a copy of the ship vessel registration for tributyltin purchases.
- Obtain and retain, for two years, a signed statement from the qualified applicator certifying they will not apply any product containing clopyralid to a residential lawn, and will only apply clopyralid to sites where they can assure the collected grass clippings will remain on the property.
- When selling a high-volatile organic compound (VOC) nonfumigant product with agricultural uses to a property operator in the San Joaquin Valley ozone nonattainment area, the Pest Control Dealer must provide to the purchaser required VOC information in writing at the time of purchase or delivery. Additionally, the Pest Control Dealer must indicate on the invoice the information above was provided to the purchaser.
